

Lou McMullin Piano and voice

Lou received his Masters degree in music from California State University at Los Angeles. While attending, he won the Outstanding Pianist Award. He was twice the winner of the Nova Scotia Music Festival.

Lou performs throughout the Los Angeles area. He can be seen every Saturday night at Stoney Point Restaurant in Pasadena. He believes that lessons should be a combination of fun and hard work. He enjoys sharing the music of J.S. Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Cole Porter, and a host of other fine composers with his students. Lou accepts beginning to advanced level students.